Niles Police Department Recognized by Special Olympics Illinois

Niles, IL – Chief of Police Luis C. Tigera and the Niles Police Department were recognized by the Special Olympics Illinois for their outstanding fundraising efforts during the 2022 season.

During the 2022 Special Olympics season, the Niles Police Department once again participated in Cop on a Rooftop, the Law Enforcement Torch Run, and the Plane Pull. Collectively, the members of the NPD raised an impressive $17,293.69, all of which was donated directly to the Special Olympics Illinois.

Chief of Police Luis C. Tigera said, "We are proud to have raised such an impressive amount for the deserving athletes of the Special Olympics Illinois, and we look forward to continuing our partnership with them."
