Sergeant Nicholas Beyer
graduates from Northwestern University's Center for Public Safety.

Niles, IL – The Niles Police Department is pleased to announce the recent graduation of Sergeant Nicholas Beyer from the School of Police Staff and Command (SPSC) at Northwestern University. Sergeant Beyer has successfully completed the ten (10) week Staff and Command Program held in Evanston from September 25 – December 8, 2017. This program, which is implemented by the Center for Public Safety in 1983, has graduated 15,000 students both nationally and internationally. Sergeant Beyer was a student in School of Police Staff and Command Class 425.

The School of Police Staff and Command provides upper-level college instruction in total of twenty-seven core blocks of instruction and additional optional block during each session. The major topics of study include: Leadership, Human Resources, Employee Relations, Organizational Behavior, Applied Statistics, Planning and Policy Development, Budgeting and Resource Allocation.

Each student is academically challenged through written examinations, projects, presentations and quizzes in addition to a staff study paper that are all required part of the curriculum. Upon successful completion, students are awarded a total of 6 units of Undergraduate credit from Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois.

The Center for Public Safety was established at Northwestern University in 1936 with specific goal of expanding university-based education and training for the Law Enforcement Community. Since its inception, the Center has broadened its original objective and now provides a variety of courses and programs in the area of Police Training, Management Training and Executive Development.

The Niles Police Department anticipates a variety of benefits from Sergeant Nicholas Beyer's attendance at this program. Previous Niles Police Department graduates of the School of Police Staff and Command have moved on to senior leadership positions within the police department.
